

Integrated Management System Policy

Prayagraj Power Generation Company Limited (PPGCL) is engaged in power generation business. This policy meets the requirements related to quality (ISO 9001:2015), environment (ISO 14001:2015) and occupational health & safety (ISO 45001:2018) and we shall continually strive and remain committed to:

- Ensure sustainable and affordable power by operating at benchmark levels through use of technology and innovation.
- Continually improve our overall performance by meeting the requirements of customer and other stakeholders through implementation of integrated quality environment and occupational health and safety management system
- Prevent injury and ill health of all persons of working under the control of the organization by identifying, minimizing, and controlling risks/hazards/unsafe conditions in the workplace and promoting a safe and healthy work environment through consultation and participation.
- Prevention of pollution by reducing emission, waste minimization, recycling and reuse of waste, conservation of resources across our operations and contribute for Environmental Protection
- Inculcate a proactive culture in quality, environment, occupational health & safety by visible leadership and empowerment.
- Creating an empowered workforce by ensuring improvement in the levels of competence and confidence of employees and business associates through education, training, skill development and encouraging participation in QSHE related initiatives
- We shall comply and endeavors to exceed with applicable statutory regulatory and other requirements enshrined in our business philosophy and ethics.

Rev: 02

Date: 16-Dec-2022

Ashok Panda

Chief Executive Officer